

ALL ABOUT ME

In your letter share what's important for me to know about you. You may use the following questions as a guideline, but feel free to "think beyond of the box." Write interestingly and well, so that I can't wait to read the next word! I would greatly appreciate your letter typed, using the format specified at the bottom of the page. And yes, you'll get the chance to practice your presentation skills by reading this in front of the class! So, let's hear about you...

A. Introduce yourself

- a. Background, family, pets
- b. Interests, hobbies
- c. Favorite places, people, heroes
- d. Plans and goals

B. You as a student

- a. Academic interests, strengths, areas to improve
- b. Reading habits (what, when where). What did you read over the summer?
- c. Favorite book(s) of all time
- d. Most recent book you read
- e. Magazines or newspapers you regularly read
- f. Favorite movie, play, museum, performance
- g. TV/Internet habits (what and how much time to do you spend)
- h. Music

C. What important question was not asked? Please respond to that question.

D. What, if anything, would you like to ask me?

E. What do you expect from this course? What do you hope for?

Format

Typed or neatly handwritten

12 point Times New Roman font

Double spacing between the lines

Name, teacher, class, and date at the top left (MLA format) like this:

Jerry Wu

Balogh

1 English 9

27 August 2013